DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to communications: Amendment, filed on 2/12/02.

This action is final.

2. Claims 1-20 are pending in this application. Claims 1, 14 and 15 are independent claims. In the Amendment, filed on 2/12/02, claims 1, 3-5, 11 and 14-15 were amended.

3. The present title of the invention is "Method and Apparatus for Rendering an Image in a Video Graphics Adapter" as filed originally.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. Claims 1, 3-4, 15 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated over Moncrief (5,275,565).

As per claim 1, Moncrief discloses a method of displaying active video on a computer system, the method comprising the steps of:

receiving at a first video graphics adapter (VGA) a first frame of active video from a video source (Figure 3, "a master controller connected to said control input means, said first memory, said maser controller generating signals to cause said first monitor to display a first portion of said simulated space which is spatially congruent with said first monitor", column 12, 63-68, where the master controller is a VGA);

Art Unit: 2672

rendering at least a first portion of the first frame of video at the first VGA in response to a first control signal (Figure 4 112a); and rendering at least a second portion of the first frame of video at a second VGA in response to a second control signal (Figure 4 112b, "A slave controller connected to said master controller, said second monitor and said second memory, said slave controller generating signals based upon said reference signal from said master controller and said data in said second memory to cause said second monitor to display a second portion of said simulated space which is spatially congruent with said second monitor", column 13, line 9-16).

6. As per claim 3, Moncrief demonstrated all the elements as applied to the rejected claim 1, supra, and further discloses the step of rendering at least a first portion of the first frame video at the first VGA includes storing the at least a first portion of the active video in a video memory associated with the first VGA (Figure 4 116a).

7. As per claim 4, Moncrief demonstrated all the elements as applied to the rejected claim 3, supra, and further discloses the step of rendering at least a second portion of the first frame of video at the second VGA includes the substep of:

storing the at least second portion of the active video in a first video memory associated with the first VGA (Figure 4 116b).

8. As per claim 15, Moncrief discloses a method of displaying active video on a computer system, the method comprising the steps of:

receiving at a first video graphics adapter (VGA) a first frame of active video from a video source (Figure 3, "a master controller connected to said control input means,

Art Unit: 2672

said first memory, said master controller generating signals to cause said first monitor to display a first portion of said simulated space which is spatially congruent with said first monitor", column 12, 63-68, where the master controller is a VGA); and displaying at least a first portion of the first frame of video at a second VGA in response to a second control signal ("A slave controller connected to said master controller, said second monitor and said second memory, said slave controller generating signals based upon said reference signal from said master controller and said data in said second memory to cause said second monitor to display a second portion of said simulated space which is spatially congruent with said second monitor", column 13, line 9-16).

9. As per claim 19, Moncrief demonstrated all the elements as applied to the rejected claim 15, supra, and further discloses the method further comprises storing the first frame of active video in a video memory associated with the first VGA (Figure 4 116a).

10. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Broemmelsiek (5,574,836).

As per claim 14, Broemmelsiek discloses a processing system for executing instructions, the processor system comprising instructions for:

monitoring the location of an active video window ("The microprocessor 52 then determines the new coordinates of front object 80", column 8, line 33-34);

storing active video data at first video memory ("microprocessor 52 ... draws the front object 80 into the first frame buffer unit 62a", column 6, line 58-60); and sending the active video data from the first memory to a second memory when the location of the active video window is associated with the second video memory ("and draws front object 80 into second frame buffer unit 62b in its coordinates in the same way it was drawn into first frame buffer unit 62a", column 8, line 34-36).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

11. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Moncrief (5,275,565).

As per claim 2, Moncrief demonstrated all the elements as applied to the rejected claim 1, supra.

Since the first portion and the second portion are differ by a reference signal, they could be the same.

Allowable Subject Matter

12. Claims 5-13, 16-18 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 2672

13. The 35 USC 112 rejection against claims 3-5 has been withdrawn.
14. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 , 14-15 and 19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

15. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
16. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
